PRESIDENT'S PONDERINGS

Hello Zontians!

The Ladies' Night Out committee has been meeting weekly to ensure a successful 2017 event. However, this is the month that we need you as members to help acquire donations for our auction. We have mailed letters to a list of donors and will ask that you look at the list at our meeting and sign up to follow up with any businesses that you frequent. Also, please remember to solicit donations from those businesses that you visit that may not be on our list. Hair-dressers, restaurants, nail salons, clothing stores, or anywhere that could donate to our silent auction.

We are also in need of rolls of stamps. Our event is up and ready to sell tickets on Eventbrite.com look for "Ladies Night Out". Let's work together for another spectacular event.

Our Area Director Dorothy Suther will be visiting us this month in addition to our program. Please help welcome her to our meeting.

DID YOU FORGET ANYONE?

We are ordering 500 print invitations for our 2nd annual Ladies' Night Out! We have made corrections to last year's mailing list, and we have room for a few more invitees. If you have someone you feel would appreciate a print invitation, please let an LNO committee member know and she will be added to the mailing list. However, you may also invite guests to participate using the EventBrite link here: <http://zonta-lno-2017.eventbrite.ca>. Confirmed retail vendors so far include consultants with Magnolia & Vine, LuLaRoe, The Pampered Chef, and Lemons to Lemonade, and our purse models have all agreed to return after last year's great experience!

THE BONDWOMAN'S NARRATIVE

An unprecedented historical and literary event, The Bondwoman's Narrative, written in the 1850s, is the only known novel by a female African American slave, and quite possibly the first novel written by a black woman anywhere. Attributed to pseudonymous author Hannah Crafts, the novel leaves clues that lead researchers to believe that the work was penned by Hannah Bond, who escaped from slavery in North Carolina in 1857 and settled in New Jersey. The novel recounts the experiences of a young mixed-race slave who escapes to the North and finds freedom.

IDEAS WELCOMED!

Did you come across a news item, magazine article, book review, quote, or website that made you think ZONTA? If so, send it to Christine for inclusion in an upcoming Zonta Zone newsletter. Items can be emailed to csterle@thorntown.lib.in.us at any time; however, info must be submitted one week prior to the club's meeting to be included in that month's newsletter!

ZONTA INTERNATIONAL NORTH AMERICAN INTERDISTRICT CONFERENCE

The 2017 NAIDM will be held June 2-4 at the McLean, Virginia Tysons Corner Hilton. On Friday, June 2, Zontians will travel to the nation's capital by train to advocate for Zonta's issues with US legislators and the Canadian Embassy. Friday evening will offer a buffet and roundtable discussions with experts on various Zonta topics. Saturday will feature a general session, workshops, lunch and dinner. The event will conclude on Sunday with more workshops and brunch. International President Sonja Hönig Schough will participate. This meeting is held in June opposite years as International and offers, workshops, speakers, and opportunity to meet Zontians in North and share ideas and information and fellowship.

Early registration for this event is available through March 1st. For more information and to register visit <http://northamericanmeeting2017.com/>.

Winning is great, sure, but if you are really going to do something in life, the secret is learning how to lose. Nobody goes undefeated all the time.
If you can pick up after a crushing defeat, and go on to win again, you are going to be a champion someday.”
